SZABIST offers University of London International Programme

The University of London International LLB Programme is an evening programme. The LLB Programme can be completed in three years. The University of London, UK will award the LLB degree. The degree awarded by the University of London through the International Programme has exactly the same academic standard as a degree awarded to a student studying at the University of London. The main syllabus has been set and the course outlines are designed by the University of London.

Why choose the University of London International Programme

Simply because it’s the smarter choice for a non-resident of the UK. You will be a University of London undergraduate. without the cost of studying abroad in the UK. No traveling expense, no lodging expense. SZABIST is giving you the opportunity to achieve the prestigious University of London degree studying right here in Pakistan.

Studying at SZABIST will only cost 1/5 of what it can cost full-time students of the University of London while the standard of the degree awarded remains exactly the same.

With a University of London, LLB. students may apply to become a member of any prestigious Inns of Court, UK or be eligible for admission to the LLM programme.

With a University of London LLB, you can practice law if you have completed the Bar Vocational Course or a Legal Practice Course, or local country requirements.

Why the University of London LLB?

You could be the next member of Lincoln’s Inn to duly qualify for the rank of Barrister-at-Law. The criteria for attaining membership as a student at any of the four Inns of Court in the UK are being a graduate of British University. With a University of London LLB degree in your hand, you will have qualified for this prestigious honor and can become a Barrister-at-Law after graduation. After attaining the title Barrister-at-Law, you will be able to practice in Pakistan as well as any other Commonwealth country.
