Brief History:

The Pak-USAID Merit and Need-Based Scholarships Program (MNBSP) Phase-II is focused on providing opportunities for higher education especially to under privileged candidates who despite having academic merit, are unable to finance their education. This scholarship is not restricted to tuition only, but covers accommodation and living expense as well.

The Executive Committee of the National Economic Council (ECNEC) has approved the program at a total cost of Rs. 2,954.808 million in its meeting held on September 6, 2013. The Project is funded by Government of United States of America as Grant in Aid.

The Phase-I of the program was initiated in 2004 at eleven (11) universities with scope of 1807 scholarships. It is the pride of the program that all the scholarships have been awarded, and 94 percent of the scholarship recipients have graduated on time.

Program Objectives:

- To enable the academically qualified, yet financially needy, Pakistani students to acquire higher education in selected private and public universities of Pakistan in the fields of Agriculture, Medical, Business, Social Science and Engineering.
- To enhance the institutional capacity of the Higher Education Commission of the Government of Pakistan and local public and private sector universities in designing and implementing MNBSP Phase II.
